

So how exactly did we go from a Play Café to a roaming Pie Café? I'm glad you asked:

In 2004, and a mom of two rambunctious toddlers I found myself in desperate need of a gated playground for the kids, yummy food and an injection of coffee for myself. My kids, Sadie and Dey became the impetus and the name of my first food business, SadieDey's Café, a place to eat and a place to play.

As we entered our 4th year I watched intently as mom's tried to eat grilled Panini's and salads while hustling after their kids. It was not a pretty sight. Greens flying, dripping dressing in one hand and a toddler in a foot-ball tuck in the other.

In 2009 I decided that our signature Panini's needed a better package. We took our famous apple , brie and chutney panini, chicken gorgonzola and pesto panini, and other favorites and baked them into handheld pies. Voila! Easy to eat with one hand, wholesome ingredients, unique flavors and limitless creative possibilities.

As we enter 2011, our pies have gained such popularity that they have become a business unto themselves . We call them "Sassy" because just like their creator Momma Sue, they just do not know how to behave and be what you would expect them to be. Our team is Sassy and so are our Pies.

Try one. You might just feel a little Sassy Too!
